ABOUT THIS FIRST AMENDED OFFERING CIRCULAR

This First Amended Offering Circular contains general information about our debt securities offered here.

We provide business and other financial information that is current as of the filing of this First Amended Offering Circular, pursuant to the laws, rules and regulations governing New York statute, local finance law, LFN 63 b. & c.

It is important for you to read and consider all information contained in this First Amended Offering Circular in making your investment decision. See “Where You Can Find More Information” and “Incorporation by Reference” in this First Amended Offering Circular.

INVESTING IN THIS BOND CARRIES RISK

Unless otherwise stated or the context otherwise requires, references in this First Amended Offering Circular to “MHR,” the “Company,” “we,” “us” and “our” and all similar references are to MHR Acquisitions, Inc.

MHR Acquisitions, Inc. has a material contract for the writing and filer support components of this bond with OTC 251, Inc.

MHR Acquisitions, Inc. has a material contract for the promotions, certificates issuance, certificates ledger maintenance with STR Capital, Inc.

II .

INTRODUCTION

MHR Acquisitions, Inc. is a company that has created a consortium for the accumulation of one thousand natural gas wells in the United States.

INVESTING IN THIS BOND CARRIES RISK

The primary purpose for the creation of this consortium is to provide for expanded supplies of natural gas in response to real and projected shortages due to world events.

At present in the United States, there are a number of natural gas wells which, due to previously low prices, were made inactive by the owners. A large number of natural gas wells are, in addition, producing and obtaining the higher prices now. Owners of these well fields are interested in cashing out after several years of low prices. A buyer's market, therefore, exists as of the writing of this offering.

In the interim, improvements in the technology for extraction will provide for a significant increase in the productivity of the wells.

Importantly for the environment, improved vapor reduction units (VRU), will capture harmful environmental gas emissions, returning them back to the well. This process will allow still greater productivity as the process will result in an increase in pressure in the wells, thus boosting the product upwards into the pumps.

INVESTING IN THIS BOND CARRIES RISK

Given the considerations shown above, there still remains the further consideration of making sure that traditional returns on investment in the oil and natural gas sector can be understood by the investor. This sector, traditionally, is a cash paying dividend sector. Dividends are intending to be paid to the shareholders on a quarterly basis. In addition, monthly revenue checks are planned on the project.

This bond offering is made, pursuant to the laws, rules and regulations governing New York statute, local finance law, LFN 63 b. & c.

Burris Energy, LLC, the seller, is a Kansas limited liability company. The owners, members of the Burris family, have resided in Coffey County, where the wells are located, for all or most of their lives. The family name maintains the highest reputation in the community.

In the past, the company operated 41 +/- natural gas wells, among several owners of land in Coffey County. The owners will handle the lease changeovers. The County Appraiser will take the coordinates from the previous operations, and map the wells to the current owners in case of any changes. This investment opportunity includes the company's operator license as well as the company's private pipeline, connected to the national pipeline for shipments.

This particular bond offering is raising the funds, pursuant to a material contract, limited to the purchase of the entire Burris Energy, LLC, plus expenses incurred in creating this offering.

III .

PROJECT DESCRIPTION - NATURAL GAS CONSORTIUM

MHR company officials selected the Burris company as the most lucrative to shareholders of 'fast start' projects for the consortium. The considerations shown above, existing wells, improved technology, high selling prices, a private pipeline connected to the national pipeline, and a company with an excellent reputation, will allow the investor to make an informed investment decision.

INVESTING IN THIS BOND CARRIES RISK

A separate non-bond acquisition price of $1,000,000.00 is parallel to this Bond and is discussed in this First Amended Offering Circular.

The bond certificate will show the number of the bond, the relevant names and the date of issue of that bond. We will calculate the maturity date, except as to the first issue bond, as the 366th day after the date on the certificate.

This First Amended Offering Circular constitutes the complete offering for this bond.

The notes will constitute a separate series of debt, pursuant to JOBS Act authorization.

The notes will be issued in minimum denominations of $2,000 and integral multiples of $1,000 in excess thereof, thereafter.

We reserve the right, from time to time and without the consent of any holders of the notes, to re-open each series of notes on terms identical in all respects to the outstanding notes of such series, except for the date of issuance, the date interest begins to accrue and, in certain circumstances, the first interest payment date, so that such additional notes will be consolidated with, form a single series with and increase the aggregate principal amount of the notes of such series.

The notes constitute our only unsecured indebtedness as of the date of first issue shown on the cover to this First Amended Offering Circular, and will rank equally with each other.

However, the notes will be structurally subordinated to any prior indebtedness, and will be effectively subordinated to any secured indebtedness to the extent of the value of the assets securing such indebtedness.

Claims of the creditors will generally have priority with respect to the assets and earnings of the company, including holders of the notes.

Accordingly, the notes will be effectively subordinated to creditors, including trade creditors and preferred stockholders, if any, of our company.

INVESTING IN THIS BOND CARRIES RISK

Prior to the maturity date, we may redeem such series of notes at our option, at any time in whole or from time to time in part, at a redemption price as calculated by us, equal to the greater of:

100% of the principal amount of the notes being redeemed;

the sum of the present values of the remaining scheduled payments of principal and interest on the notes being redeemed, exclusive of interest accrued to, but excluding the date of redemption, discounted to the date of redemption on an annual basis, plus one day, equal to the interest rate on the notes.

CERTAIN U.S. FEDERAL INCOME TAX CONSIDERATIONS

The following is a summary of certain U.S. federal income tax considerations of the ownership and disposition of the notes. This summary is based upon provisions of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or the “Code,” applicable U.S. Treasury regulations, administrative rulings and judicial decisions in effect as of the date of this First Amended Offering Circular, any of which may be subsequently be changed, possibly retroactively, or interpreted differently by the Internal Revenue Service, or the “IRS,” so as to result in U.S. federal income tax consequences different from those discussed below. Except where noted, this summary deals only with a note held as a capital asset upon issuance at the first price at which a substantial portion of the notes of the applicable series is sold for cash to persons other than bond houses, brokers, or similar persons or organizations acting in the capacity of underwriters, placement agents or wholesalers.

including the impact of the Medicare contribution tax on net investment income, and does not deal with all tax consequences that may be relevant to holders in light of their personal circumstances or particular situations, such as:

a) tax consequences to U.S. holders whose 'functional currency' is not the U.S. dollar;

b) tax consequences to 'controlled foreign corporations,' 'passive foreign investment companies,' and corporations that accumulate earnings to avoid U.S. federal income tax;

c) tax consequences to persons subject to special tax accounting rules as a result of any item of gross income with respect to the notes being taken into account in an applicable financial statement;

d) tax consequences to entities treated as partnerships for U.S. federal income tax purposes and investors therein;

e) tax consequences to certain former citizens or residents of the United States;

INVESTING IN THIS BOND CARRIES RISK

f) alternative minimum tax consequences, if any;

g) any state local or foreign tax consequences, if any, and;

h) estate or gift taxes.

If an entity or arrangement that is treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes holds notes, the tax treatment of a partner or member generally will depend upon the status of the partner or member and the activities of the entity. If you are a partner or member in such an entity, you should consult your tax advisors.

If you are considering the purchase of notes, you should consult your tax advisors concerning the U.S. federal income tax consequences to you in light of your own specific situation, as well as consequences arising under the U.S. federal estate or gift tax laws or under the laws of any other taxing jurisdiction.

INVESTING IN THIS BOND CARRIES RISK

In this discussion, we use the term “U.S. holder” to refer to a beneficial owner of notes that is, for U.S. federal income tax purposes:

a) an individual citizen or resident of the United States;

b) a corporation (or any other entity treated as a corporation for U.S. federal income tax purposes) created or organized in or under the laws of the United States, any state thereof, or the District of Columbia;

c) an estate, the income of which is subject to U.S. federal income taxation, regardless of its source;

d) a trust, if it:

1) is subject to the primary supervision of a court within the United States and one or more U.S. persons have the authority to control all substantial decisions of the trust, or;

INVESTING IN THIS BOND CARRIES RISK

2) has a valid election in effect under applicable U.S. Treasury regulations to be treated as a U.S. person.

We use the term “non-U.S. holder” to describe a beneficial owner of notes that is neither a U.S. holder nor a partnership or other entity that is treated as a partnership for U.S. federal income tax purposes.

YOU SHOULD CONSULT WITH YOUR TAX ADVISORS REGARDING THE FEDERAL, STATE, LOCAL AND FOREIGN INCOME, FRANCHISE, PERSONAL PROPERTY AND ANY OTHER TAX CONSEQUENCES OF THE OWNERSHIP AND DISPOSITION OF THE NOTES.

It is anticipated, subject to any exceptions which your tax attorney or advisor may indicate, that interest paid on the notes generally will be taxable to a U.S.

holder as ordinary interest income at the time such payments are accrued or received in accordance with the holder's regular method of tax accounting.

Subject to any exceptions which your tax attorney or advisor may indicate, a U.S. holder will generally recognize gain or loss equal to the difference between the amount realized on the sale, exchange, redemption, repurchase by us or other taxable disposition of a note (except to the extent the amount realized is attributable to accrued and unpaid interest, which will be taxable as ordinary interest income to the extent not previously included in income) and the U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in such note.

INVESTING IN THIS BOND CARRIES RISK

A U.S. holder's adjusted tax basis in the note generally will be the initial purchase price for such note. Any gain or loss recognized on a sale, exchange, redemption, repurchase by us or other taxable disposition of the note will be capital gain or loss. If, at the time of the sale, exchange, redemption, repurchase by us or other taxable disposition of the note, a U.S. holder is treated as holding the note for more than one year, such capital gain or loss will be a long-term capital gain or loss. Otherwise, such capital gain or loss will be a short-term capital gain or loss. In the case of certain non-corporate U.S. holders (including individuals), long-term capital gains are generally eligible for reduced rates of U.S. federal income taxation. A U.S. holder's ability to deduct capital losses may be limited.

Information reporting requirements generally will apply to interest on the notes and the proceeds of a sale, exchange, redemption, repurchase by us or other taxable disposition of a note paid to a U.S.

INVESTING IN THIS BOND CARRIES RISK

holder unless the U.S. holder is an exempt recipient (such as a corporation).

Backup withholding will apply to those payments if the U.S. holder fails to provide its correct taxpayer identification number, or certification of exempt status, or if the U.S. holder is notified by the IRS that it has failed to report in full payments of interest and dividend income. Any amounts withheld under the backup withholding rules will be allowed as a refund or a credit against a U.S. holder's U.S. federal income tax liability provided the required information is furnished to the IRS in a timely manner.

VIII .

TAXATION OF NON-U.S. HOLDERS

Subject to advice by your tax attorney and financial advisor, and applicable regulations, if you are a non-U.S. holder, U.S. federal withholding tax will not be applied to any payment of interest on a note to a non-U.S. holder.

INVESTING IN THIS BOND CARRIES RISK

Subject to advice by your tax attorney and financial advisor, and applicable regulations, if you are a non-U.S. holder, gain recognized by a non-U.S. holder on the sale, exchange, redemption, repurchase by us or other taxable disposition of a note will not be subject to U.S. federal income tax.

Subject to advice by your tax attorney and financial advisor, and applicable regulations, if a non-U.S. holder is an individual or foreign corporation, he, she or it may be subject to tax on the net gain derived from the sale, exchange, redemption, repurchase by us or other taxable disposition under regular graduated U.S. federal income tax rates and in the same manner as if the non-U.S. holder were a U.S. holder.

Subject to advice by your tax attorney and financial advisor, and applicable regulations, if a non-U.S. holder is a foreign corporation, under certain conditions, it may be subject to the branch profits tax.

INVESTING IN THIS BOND CARRIES RISK

Subject to advice by your tax attorney and financial advisor, and applicable regulations, if a non-U.S. holder is eligible for the benefits of an income tax treaty between the United States and its country of residence, any such gain will be subject to U.S. federal income tax in the manner specified by the treaty and generally will only be subject to U.S. federal income tax if such gain is attributable to a permanent establishment maintained by the non-U.S. holder in the United States.

Subject to advice by your tax attorney and financial advisor, and applicable regulations, generally, the amount of interest paid to non-U.S. holders and the amount of tax, if any, withheld with respect to those payments must be reported annually to the IRS and to non-U.S. holders. Copies of the information returns reporting such interest and withholding may also be made available to the tax authorities in the country in which a non-U.S. holder resides under the provisions of an applicable income tax treaty.

INVESTING IN THIS BOND CARRIES RISK

Subject to advice by your tax attorney and financial advisor, and applicable regulations, in general, a non-U.S. holder will not be subject to backup withholding with respect to payments of interest that we make.

Subject to advice by your tax attorney and financial advisor, and applicable regulations, the Foreign Account Tax Compliance Act (FATCA) may apply.
